 THESE BONDS ARE ISSUED IN DENOMINATIONS OF $50, $100, $500, $1,000 and $5,000, dated August 15, 1864, and payable in three (3) years from that date into the Treasury of the United States.
 These bonds are sold at market rates and are subject to the requirements of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide a National Currency, secured by a pledge of United States Bonds, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved June 3, 1864, and are subject to the provisions of said Act required to be complied with before commencing the business of banking under said Act.
 Now, therefore, I, Hugh McCulloch, Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify that THE NATIONAL BROADWAY BANK, of New-York, in the City of New-York, and State of New-York, has been duly organized under an authority conferred by the Act of Congress, and is authorized to commence the business of banking under the said Act.
 In testimony whereof, whereas my hand and seal of office this 10th day of January, 1865.

 Wells will be immediately sunk on the property held in fee simple by this Company, and with the large working capital of $75,000 great results are anticipated.
 The developed interests, as will be seen above in the "Lady Washington," the "Amazon," and the "Colby" Wells, are already sufficient to enable the Company to pay monthly dividends.
 The Company has been formed not as a matter of speculation, but to develop a property which, it is believed, will prove to be of great value. The reputation of the gentlemen composing the Board of Trustees is a sufficient guaranty that this object will be rapidly and faithfully carried out, and thus the stock will prove a most desirable and profitable investment.
